

Fundraising

Not only will you be testing yourself physically and mentally while experiencing some of the most beautiful places in the USA, but you will also be fundraising $5,000 for the COINS Foundation.

Each year companies from the construction and service industries take up this challenge and climb three mountains in support of the COINS Foundation, helping to build schools, hospitals and homes.

This year, the COINS Foundation has partnered with Habitat for Humanity's Neighborhood Revitalization Initiative to build strong sustainable communities across America.

The challenge team will support your fund-raising campaign from start to finish. A fund-raising pack full of ideas will be provided along with plenty of advice and guidance to help you develop your fund-raising plans.

A Mountain Challenge for the Construction Industry September 17-18, 2011

The Challenge

If you are looking for an exceptional physical challenge, this exclusive 24hr teambuilding event is for you...

Starting in the Adirondack Park, the largest publicly protected area in the contiguous United States, teams will summit Whiteface Mountain at 4,867feet. From there, support crews will transport their hikers to Brattleboro, VT for a brief rest before making the predawn trip to one of the most popular peaks in the world, Mount Monadnock, NH at 3,165 feet. The final leg is a drive to northern Vermont to tackle the state's highest peak, Mount Mansfield at 4,395 feet.

At the finish, you'll be greeted by your support crew as well as a celebratory dinner with presentations, awards, medals and t-shirts for all. The evening is rounded out with musical entertainment in the mountain lodge for those who have stamina!

▲ EMCOR-New England Mechanical Services at the start line

▲ Troy Boiler Works at Mt. Mansfield Check Point #3

▲ Comfort Systems USA prepares at Whiteface

▲ 24hours, 24miles, over 12,000 feet complete

“The COINS 3 Peaks Challenge was a fantastic fundraising event that provided our company the chance to give back to the needy in our community and abroad. It was extremely well run and pushed us to achieve what we did not know we were capable of doing. Kudos to The COINS Foundation, on both sides of the pond, for backing this very worthy event.”

Troy Boiler Works

“It was a unique challenge that I will never forget. All 24 of us bonded out there and will never forget the experience. I heard comments from VP's and long term employees saying that was the best group team building event they had ever taken part in. We can't wait until next year; time to start training!!!”
